RE: Safety Light Corporation Site
Information Request – Bowe Bell & Howell

Dear Mr. Steinmetz:

Bowe Bell + Howell Company ("BBH") has conducted a search of its records for documents and information pertaining to a business relationship with Safety Light Corporation or its predecessors per the US Environmental Protection Agency's request. Our search did not reveal any documents or information that such a relationship existed.

I am not surprised by the results of the search. BBH is a manufacturer of mail processing equipment and does not have use for hazardous or radioactive material, such as H 3 foil and Po 210, in its products. Further, BBH was not formed until December 1987, which is twenty years after the dates referenced in the ledgers attached to the US EPA's request. I have attached copies of the documents evidencing the formation of BBH for your information.

If you would like to discuss this matter further, please feel free to contact me directly at 919.767.7726.

Sincerely,

Blake Eaddy
